The SLCC Archives & Digital Collections have launched a new website of Online Exhibits. These Online Exhibits complement the physical exhibits on display, such as the current History of the Eccles Lab School Exhibit with a special event on October 16th. Some of the new opportunities made possible by these online exhibits include:

Click to enlarge.

- Highlighted resources from the SLCC Digital Collections (with links to the digital objects)
- Interactive elements such as online games and digital art sites to let loose your creativity
- Explanations of current and past exhibits with lots of images and other interesting materials and links
- The opportunity for individuals to “visit” SLCC Archives & Digital Collections Exhibits that they may have missed

Be sure to check out this new site (<http://slccarchives.wix.com/exhibits>) to find out more about the SLCC Archives & Digital Collections as well as a bit about the history of the College and some of the really exciting things going on at SLCC!
